Allan Sanderson to Retire after 14 Years of Service; Bob Meyer Appointed New President of ACE Westchester Property

After 14 years of dedicated service to ACE Westchester, Allan Sanderson, President of ACE Westchester's Property division has announced his plans to retire. In conjunction with Allan's announcement, Bob Meyer, former Senior Vice President of Westchester Property's Eastern Region, has been appointed President of ACE Westchester Property, effective May 24.

I am delighted to announce the appointment of Bob to this important leadership position and want to publicly congratulate him on this accomplishment. I am confident Bob will serve our company well with the combination of his proven management experience, leadership and technical underwriting experience.

I also want to acknowledge and thank Allan for his outstanding contributions over the last 14 years. Allan's dedication and expertise have greatly contributed to the success and growth of ACE Westchester's property division.

Please join me in congratulating Bob on his new role and extending Allan our best wishes on his upcoming retirement.
