New Broker-Friendly Site Provides Easy Access plus Online Quote and Bind Capability for Select Coverages

ACE Westchester has just unveiled its new interactive website, making it easier for wholesale brokers to navigate through the site, access information and to quote and bind select coverages.

Brokers and visitors who access the new site will find:

- A searchable directory listing ACE Westchester's contacts in nine field offices throughout the United States.
- Easy navigation through ACE Westchester's broad array of products and services.

Features of the newly-designed site also include:

- A complete list of available insurance applications -- by type of exposure as well as underwriting guidelines, to further enhance brokers' ease and flexibility in the submission process.
- Easy navigation and access to ACE Westchester's online quote and bind system specifically tailored for its key Inland Marine product offerings: Builder's Risk and Motor Truck Cargo.

"Our primary objectives for launching this new website are to help educate and engage existing and future wholesale brokers by connecting them to specific product offerings, online solutions and enabling them to more readily communicate with the people here at ACE Westchester," said Dennis Crosby, President and CEO, ACE Westchester. "ACE Westchester is committed to strengthening relationships with our distribution partners by making sure they can quickly and easily obtain the information they want and need."
