JULY 2010

John Lavin named Eastern Regional Manager, ACE Westchester Property

We are pleased to announce the promotion of John Lavin to the position of Vice President and Eastern Regional Manager of ACE Westchester Property. In addition to his current role as Manager of the Chicago Property office, John will assume leadership of the Atlanta Property office and oversee management of the New York Property office. John will report to Bob Meyer, President, ACE Westchester Property.

John's underwriting expertise and leadership qualities make him a natural fit for this key position.

Please join us in congratulating John on his expanded role with ACE Westchester.
